

About BYTF...

Come along and camp with hundreds of other youth theatre members this summer, including our friends from the Quaker Youth Theatre.

Words, Signs & Vibes will be taking a performance to the festival. The theme of the performance is based around the idea of different fictional characters being put into the Big Brother House. We will be creating & rehearsing the performance at the Saturday Club, from February to July. Don't worry if you don't attend the Saturday club, you can still come along to be with the group and experience the fun of the festival!
